

CANADIAN

January/February 2009

WATER

TREATMENT

Canada's Complete Water Magazine

IS WATER RECESSION-PROOF? THE STATE OF THE INDUSTRY ISSUE

STOCKING THE SHELVES

INVESTING IN WATER TECHNOLOGY

PROTECTING WATERSHEDS
FROM THE ROOTS UP

2009
BUYER'S GUIDE
INCLUDED

PM #4085046

watertreatment.ca

$6.00

CANADIAN WATER TREATMENT

January/February 2009

Volume 9 Number 1

14

8

10

5 Editor's Message

Beyond Bisphenol A: What's next on the chemical hit list?
By John Nicholson

6 Letters

Banning the ban of bottled water bans; giving soft water a hard time.

8 Stock the Shelves

The high demand for POU/POE devices.
By Anoushka Martil

10 Opportunity Knocks

Investing in Canada's water technology ecosystem.
By David Henderson

12 Dust to Dust

St. Lawrence Cement Inc. v. Barrette.
By Ian Richler

14 From the Ground Up

Watershed protection at the grassroots level.
By Harry van Bommel

18 Water News

20 Death to Bacteria

Using carbon nanotubes to treat wastewater.
By Steven Rose

22 Events

ONEIA's EBOB, Water Abundance in Canada and the United States: Myth or Reality?, and more.

23 Review

HTO: Toronto's Water from Lake Iroquois to Lost Rivers to Low-flow Toilets.
By Tina Chu

24 Case Study

RBC wastewater treatment at Mini Lakes, Aberfoyle, Ontario.
By Brent Lauber and Miles MacCormack

26 Water Industry Business Watch

Innovation and partnerships.
By James Sbrolla

ABOUT THE COVER

Cover illustration: Duncan Keelby

The crash-and-burn of the auto industry doesn't necessarily spell disaster for water-related industries. In fact, our writers predict positive outcomes for water investment and product sales.

12

20