

CANADIAN

September/October 2009

WATER

TREATMENT

Canada's Complete Water Magazine

GLOBAL APPEAL

CANADIAN COMPANIES WELCOME IN WORLD MARKETS

THE WATER-ENERGY NEXUS

PUBLIC VS. PRIVATE

STIMULATING BIOLOGY

PM #40854046

watertreatment.ca

$6.00

CANADIAN WATER TREATMENT

September/October 2009

Volume 9 Number 5

28

32

19

5 Editor's Message

China in Canada: Big challenges and exciting potential.
By John Nicholson

6 Letters Andrea Horwath makes a case against Dump Site 41.

FEATURES

13 The Wild West Water Market Developing rules for water rights in Alberta. By Alan Harvie

21 From Wire to Tap Are we flushing energy down the drain?
By Carol Maas

26 Going Soft on Water A path forward for municipalities.
By Sheila Forsyth, Elizabeth Hendriks and Leela Ramachandran

REMEDIATION

7 Stimulating Biology Innovative bioremediation technology.
By Kevin Sharfe

9 National Strategies How do Canada's groundwater maps measure up?
By John Nicholson and Sarah Lenarcic

12 Ground Tech Canadian remediation advancements.
By Mira Shenker

THE PUBLIC/PRIVATE DEBATE

16 The Public Good Does private sector involvement have an effect on water quality?
By Randy Christensen

19 Dreading the P-Word Winnipeg's new water utility could be a source of anxiety about privatization.
By Alan MacKenzie

INTERNATIONAL

28 In Bloom Kerry Freck looks at Israel's blossoming water technology industry.

32 Seizing the Opportunity Distributing Canadian water technology in China.
By Alan McMillan

DEPARTMENTS

34 Events World Water Week in Stockholm, Elmvale Water Festival.

36 Liquid Assets Investment portfolios are thirsty for water.
By Ian McPherson

38 Bottle Matters Sustainable solutions.
By Anne Bristow

40 Water News What's new in the water industry.

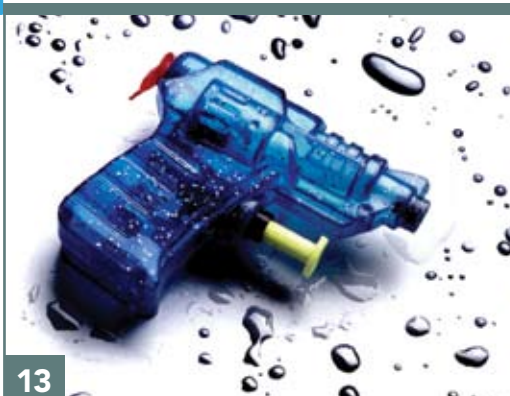

42 Business Watch Group benefits.
By James Sbrolla

ABOUT THE COVER

Credit: Kerry Freck

Tel Aviv's vibrant Center for Environmental Education, featuring art projects such as this recycled bottle desk facade, is an engaging venue for several pilot water projects. See page 28 to learn how Canada is involved in Israel's water technology landscape.

13

16