

CANADIAN

November/December 2009

WATER

TREATMENT

Canada's Complete Water Magazine

THE NEXT BIG THING

HOW CANADIAN WATER COMPANIES ARE TURNING NEW TECHNOLOGIES INTO SUCCESS STORIES

THE NEXT GENERATION OF IT SOLUTIONS

SUPERBUGS: ADVANCED MICROBIAL TECHNOLOGY

PLUS
8 WATER MYTHS
DEBUNKED

CANADIAN WATER TREATMENT

November/December 2009

Volume 9 Number 6

7

10

19

5 Editor's Message

Space Tourism vs. Water Crisis: How would you spend $35 million?

By John Nicholson

- 6 Letters Doug Dobrowolski discusses bans on sewage ejectors in Manitoba.

FEATURES

7 Myths and Legends

Law professor Bruce Pardy debunks eight pervasive myths about water.

19 AWaste Opportunity

Decentralization can help communities reuse their water.

By Ryan Devlin

22 Awash with Potential

Ontario's provincial water conservation and efficiency strategy.

By Carol Maas and Kurtis Elton

25 Preserving the Past

Modernizing a plant without jeopardizing its history.

By Laurie Boyce

30 The Life Aquatic

A new lab at CCIW fishes for a modern solution.

By Sylvie Hill

TECHNOLOGY

10 Managing the Ultimate Asset

Making scientifically-guided decisions with technology.

By Tina Chu

14 The Next Big Thing

How new water technology entrepreneurs aim for success.

By Kerry Freek and David Henderson

16 Faster than the Speed of Life

The risks and rewards of advanced microbial technology.

By John Nicholson and Morgan Vespa

17 Regulating Biotechnology

The legal considerations surrounding biotechnology in water and wastewater treatment.

By Ian Richler and Scott Smith

DEPARTMENTS

- 28 Liquid Assets How reducing water loss can give you more bang for your buck. By Faisal Mirza

- 33 Bottle Matters Clearing bottled water's bad name with CSR tactics.

- 35 Events OCETA's 15th Anniversary, Rivers in the City, WEFTEC 09.

- 38 Legal Keeping track of riparian rights. By Roxie Graystone

- 40 Water News What's new in the water industry.

- 42 Business Watch Corporate social responsibility. By James Sbrolla and Sarah Lenarcic

ABOUT THE COVER

Credit: Michael Zaharuk

Canadian water technology entrepreneurs are coming out of the woodwork. How have they followed in the footsteps of giants like Trojan and ZENON?

25

30