

WATER CANADA

Securing at the Source Assessing Contaminant Risks to Drinking Water

INSIDE:

WC
BUYER'S
GUIDE
2016

(page 31)

Chromium Standards
for Drinking Water (page 10)

Operator Job Satisfaction
and Water Quality (page 14)

Gaps in Science on Hydraulic Fracturing (page 21)

ANNUAL BUYER'S GUIDE

31 A comprehensive directory of water products, services, and resources.

FEATURES

24 Risk Reaction

A contentious plan to store nuclear waste underground near Lake Huron raises concerns

BY SAUL CHERNOS

DRINKING WATER

10 On the Level

How Canada can avoid falling farther behind with our water quality guidelines

BY RANDY CHRISTENSEN
AND ELAINE MACDONALD

CONVEYANCE

12 Message in a Bottle

The problems we're not solving by banning bottled water

BY JESSIE SITNICK
AND DALE BEUGIN

WASTEWATER

17 From Treatment to Resource Recovery

How some Canadian utilities are leading in wastewater-to-energy projects

BY EVE KRAKOW

WATER RESOURCES

20 Fractured Knowledge

Experts weigh in on what is known and unknown to inform decisions

BY KATHRYN ROSS

8

10

17

20

44

SPECIAL FEATURE

44 Water Canada partners with IESO to discuss water treatment and energy efficiency

COLUMNS

8 Groundbreakers

Exploring innovative water management approaches in Germany's capital.

BY KERRY FREEK

14 Ask the Expert

Is job satisfaction the key to solving the First Nations drinking water crisis?

BY ELLIOTT CORSTON-PINE,
MATTHEW GREKULA,
AND ED MCBEAN

28 Fine Print

British Columbia rescinds water license used in hydraulic fracturing

BY WALLY BRAUL,
MIRA GAUVIN,
AND HARRY DAHME

50 H2Opinion

Five strategic priorities to take Ontario's water sector to the next level

BY BRENDA LUCAS
AND PETER GALLANT

DEPARTMENTS

5 Editor's note

The federal election results holds many promises for water

6 Front

Canada helps build toilets for floating villages in Cambodia

47 People and Events

Jobs, awards, contracts and the latest event coverage